Rental Terms & Conditions

Reservations, shipping, pick-up & drop-off : No rental will be considered booked & accepted until the non refundable deposit ($50 each outfit) has been paid. The full rental balance will be automatically charged to the credit card on file 3 weeks before your event date. Reservations that are made less than 6 months from the event date will be charged the full balance instead of a $50 deposit. Orders will be shipped roughly 10 days prior to your event date, and shipments will be made by Fed Ex ground. If a quicker delivery is desired, options are available at the customers cost. If your rental qualifies for free shipping, we will pack & ship the items to you at no charge, but the return shipping is always the customer's responsibility. Local pick-ups for weekend events are on Thursday before your event. Local returns are due back by 5pm on the Tuesday after your weekend event. Our store is closed on weekends & holidays.

$50 non-refundable deposit, per person :

- If your full balance has been paid & you cancel your rental less than 30 days before your event date, your whole balance will be forfeited, we will offer no refunds or credits.
- If your full balance has been paid and you cancel your rental more than 30 days before your event date, we will refund everything except the $50 non-refundable deposit per person.
- If your $50 non-refundable deposit has been paid (and your remaining balance is still outstanding) and your event is canceled, we will keep your deposit and clear out your remaining balance.

Damaged & lost merchandise: Any rental merchandise that is damaged beyond reasonable repair or that is lost while in your possession, will be charged to your credit card at full retail price. Torn and damaged items that we deem repairable will be repaired at a fair price and charged to your account.

Any rental merchandise returned permanently stained, soiled, or water damaged, will be charged full retail price for replacing the items. Any rental kilt or shirt returned with bodily fluids on them will be packed up and returned to you at retail price. Kilts start at $389, tux shirts are $39.95, Highlander shirts are $59.95.

If an article of clothing, a shoe, or any item rented is wet from perspiration or water, it must be air dried (not in machine dryer) before shipping. The customer will be held responsible for mold/mildew infested items due to shipping wet clothes or shoes. Since mold/mildew destroys clothing & shoes, the customer will be charged full retail price for unsalvageable items damaged by mold/mildew.

Ironing the kilt's exterior can damage the fabric. It should be ironed from the inside if needed. Do not let the hot iron touch the jacket; you should have a piece of cotton fabric between the jacket and the iron. The best way to get wrinkles out is steaming so damage does not occur.

Any personal items (sunglasses, etc.) that are accidentally left in a rental return will be sent back to the customer at the customers cost. Symphony Studios, Inc. is not obligated to initiate contact in regards to a lost & found issue. If you think you might have accidentally sent us something that belongs to you, call 480-460-0907.

Extended rental fees: If you are sending rented items to us via "ground" they must be scanned by the delivery driver on the first business day after your event. If you cannot make it to a Fed Ex or UPS location on the following business day after your event, you have 2 options: accept the "extended rental fee" or ship the item via "express" so that it arrives on the due date given. All rental merchandise is to be returned by the due date given. To compensate for lost business, any rental merchandise not received by the due date shall be subject to an "extended rental fee" of $25.00 a day, per person. The fees and/or merchandise replacement fees will be charged to the credit card given on your rental account. For any full formal rental outfits not returned within 7 days of your due date, there will be a charge of $1,200 per package to your credit card on file. For any individual items rented (IE: kilt only) the full retail price for each item will be charged to your credit card on file.

Civil and Criminal Remedies : Symphony Studios, Inc reserves the right to pursue civil & criminal remedies against lessee, including, but not limited to, obtaining, by Lessee's credit card or otherwise, from Lessee the cost of the full retail price of a comparable substitute of equipment & extended rental fees assessed prior to deeming the Lessee in default or the equipment lost or unreturned; notifying a collections agency, which immediately results in additional attorney's & collection fees being charged to Lessor, filing of criminal charges, employing "skip tracer," private investigator, or repossession agency to collect the equipment or goods sufficient to repay the value of the equipment, and/or pursue any and all legal remedies against Lessee. Lessee will also forfeit all rights enumerated in the Privacy Policy of Lessor. These remedies are not exclusive. In the event of litigation to recover any such damages, Lessee is held responsible for all legal fees & costs incurred by Lessor.
